Lisa Gray & Caroline Knipe - Interior Living (Victoria)

Lisa Gray and Caroline Knipe have achieved something rather wonderful by joining forces to create Interior Living, a popular design team in Melbourne's inner east. Their unique careers and creative vision have paved the way to form a versatile decorating and window furnishing business. With a flair for classic and contemporary design, Lisa and Caroline consider both function and style to achieve an inspired design outcome. Offering a complete decorating service, Interior Living can assist with design and layout, furniture selection, colour schemes and custom-made window and soft furnishings. Together with various Australian manufacturers, such as BQ Design, their quality custom-made furnishings provide the perfect finishing touch. Toni Ford - Karanda Interiors (NSW)

Commitment and professionalism are the hallmarks of Karanda Interiors, a design and decoration business established 30 years ago by Toni Ford and her father John Ford. Armed with an impressive list of professional qualifications, Toni has set herself apart from other designers by honing her strong business instincts and displaying an infectious enthusiasm for design. She meets challenges with creativity, practicality and consideration toward her clients' needs and the most appropriate design solution for the project. From redesigning floor plans to consulting, renovating and finishing with beautiful custom-made soft furnishings, Toni prides herself on completing projects on time and on budget — repeat business from a long list of satisfied clients are testament to this! You will find Toni and her experienced team at Karanda Interiors' new location of 563 Kingsway, Miranda.
