Lyn York - Design Curtains (NSW)

With impressive showrooms in Castle Hill and more recently Mona Vale, director Lyn York says that Design Curtains has a commanding presence throughout metropolitan Sydney. This is supported by an enviable reputation as one of the leading designers of interior soft furnishings for demanding residential and commercial markets. Since 1971, Design Curtains has provided a diverse range of products and services including innovative window furnishings, fabrics, decorator accessories, interior design and decoration and colour consultation. As a potential client of Design Curtains, rest assured that you are appointing an interior specialist who will fulfil your expectations of unique innovation and expert advice that will be delivered with uncompromising professionalism. Visit www.designcurtains.com.au or www.designhomeliving.com.au for inspirational images capturing the latest trends and themes, and for personalised service. Lyn and her team would be delighted to take your call on 1300 760 720 to organise an in-home consultation.

Tanya Christie - Peninsula Curtains & Blinds (Victoria)

Proudly unrivalled in service and quality, Peninsula Curtains and Blinds is a well-respected name throughout Melbourne and the Mornington Peninsula. A family business started nearly 30 years ago, it is still run by the same family today, just a new generation. We offer personal guidance in selecting from a wide variety of residential window coverings, and also have an extensive commercial portfolio including schools and nursing homes. Tanya (pictured) has a Diploma of Arts in Interior and Graphic Design and all our decorators possess a wealth of product knowledge and are trained in colour coordination and measuring. They will work with your existing colour scheme or create a new base for you to start from. Our comprehensive product range caters for most internal and external applications and Peninsula Curtains and Blinds provide a complete, free in-home consultation. Visit our display centre and showroom both located in beachside Mornington.
